SHCC seeks to probe dengue patient's death issue

By Our Staff Correspondent

HYDERABAD: The chief executive officer (CEO) of the Sindh Health Care Commission (SHCC) has urged the Hyderabad police that the matter of alleged medical negligence leading to the death of a patient at the Liaquat University Hospital should be referred to it for an investigation.

It said the matter needed to be investigated in accordance with the relevant law and in the light of the Oct 28 order passed by the additional sessions judge-I of Hyderabad.

Addressing a letter dated Nov 3 and addressed to the Market police, the SHCC chief referred to Section 29 of the SHCC Act, 2013 which said that "no suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding related to provision of healthcare services shall lie against a healthcare service provider except under this Act".

He said the statutory provision also established that any allegation of medical negligence on the part of a healthcare service provider should first be subjected to a technical inquiry by the SHCC, being a competent authority, under the law to investigate and determine if the alleged acts constituted medical negligence.

The CEO offered cooperation to the police, saying: "Should you require any additional information or assistance in relation to this matter, the SHCC remains available to extend full cooperation and support".

SHCC's director (complaints), on the other hand, has addressed a letter to Amir Lutuf Ali Zardari, father of the deceased patient, Hasnain Zardari, requiring him to provide a written statement presenting his detailed version.

Hasnain Zardari, a dengue patient, died in the intensive care unit (ICU) of the Liaquat University Hospital (LUH) on Oct 22.

Amir Zardari was asked to provide copies of all relevant medical records and any other documents pertinent to his complaint, including death certificate, along with the CNIC of Hasnain. These documents, according to the SHCC director, were necessary to proceed with the proposed inquiry under the SHCC Act, 2013 and the 2017 regulations. The complainant was asked to provide these documents within three days.

Market police have registered a murder case against a teacher of the Liaquat University of Medical and Health Sciences (LUMHS), Jamshoro, Prof Dr Iqbal Shah, LUH Medical Superintendent Dr Ali Akbar Dahri and several other LUH doctors on the complaint of Amir Zardari in line with court's Oct 28 order.

Opposition accuses federal govt of dismantling Constitution

Leaders announce launch of nationwide campaign with Nov 14 rally against 'illegitimate hybrid system'

By Our Staff Reporter

KARACHI: Leaders of the Tehreek Tahaffuz-i-Aeen Pakistan — a conglomerate of six opposition parties — on Tuesday announced launch of a country-wide campaign on Nov 14 for the supremacy of the Constitution and respect for people's mandate.

They made the announcement at a joint press conference at the Karachi Press Club and appealed to people to attend the Nov 14 public meeting at Hyderabad Bypass.

The press conference was addressed by Central Vice Chairman of the movement Syed Zain Shah, who is also president of the Sindh United Party (SUP); Pakistan Tehreek-i-Insaf (PTI) Sindh President Haleem Adil Sheikh; Allama Hayat Abbas of the Majlis Wahdat-e-Muslimeen (MWM); Dr Mahmood of the Pakhtunkhwa Milli Awami Party (MkMAP); and Mufti Hafiz of Jamiat Ulema-i-Islam-Sherani (JUI-S).

Zain Shah said that the Tehreek was formed after the 2024 general elections when the constitutional supremacy in the country had been undermined.

"After 2022, a hybrid system was imposed, and the current government was installed through a bogus election," he said. "The country can only function under the Constitution, and if the president and prime minister act beyond it, how can the state operate?" Zain Shah remarked.

Haleem Adil Sheikh alleged that the Constitution had already been violated and the government was now seeking to dismantle it.

"After the 26th Amendment, the judiciary has become subservient," he lamented. PTI founder Imran Khan, many party leaders and activists, among them women, have remained imprisoned, he said. He deplored that opposition lawmakers in the National Assembly and Senate were awarded sentences of up to 40 years. He said that the Tehreek Tahaffuz-i-Aeen Pakistan believed in democratic struggle rather than violence.

"We have no gangs or mafias within our ranks. We rely on the power of the people to dismantle this system, established through a 'stolen' mandate," he said.

Sheikh maintained that the incumbent rulers had no genuine mandate and therefore they did not have the right to amend the Constitution.

"The nation will not accept any constitutional amendment thrust upon it," he added.

Turning to Karachi, Sheikh said the e-challan system had been imposed on citizens while the city's infrastructure remained in ruins. Health, agriculture and justice systems across Sindh have collapsed, he observed, and alleged that the PPP had destroyed the province.

Allama Hayat Abbas of the MWM said no government installed through oppression could survive, adding that his party stood with the Tehreek to ensure that citizens got their rights.

Dr Mahmood of the MkMAP said governments formed through "stolen mandates" were unacceptable, and his party supported the movement's demand for the supremacy of the Constitution and release of all political prisoners.

Minister opens Rs610m Rohri Cattle Colony project

By Our Correspondent

SUKKUR: Sindh Local Government Minister Syed Nasir Hussain Shah on Tuesday inaugurated the Rohri Cattle Colony, built at a cost of Rs610m for cattle owners and dairy farmers.

Speaking at the opening ceremony and later to the media, the minister said that now when the Cattle Colony had been put into operation, all buffalo pens existing anywhere in Sukkur or Rohri should be moved to the new place.

He pointed out that there were 40 sheds built within the colony for cattle heads, and said that well over 2,000 buffalos could be accommodated in these sheds.

Nasir Shah said that owners of cattle pens and sheds could also produce dairy products, besides milk, to increase their income. He pledged that the government would extend loan facility to them, if they wished so, to help them establish or expand their businesses.

Spread over 58 acres, the colony is situated near Aror University.

Nasir Shah said it offered facilities like solar power system, drinking water and security cover, and had the potential of becoming one of the country's largest cattle colonies.

The minister directed the Sukkur district administration to take appropriate action if any owner of cattle pen in Sukkur or Rohri refused to move it to the new colony.

In reply to a question about the proposed 27th constitutional amendment, the minister said that the Pakistan Peoples Party (PPP) would not support any of its clause that was found in conflict with the interests of the province or the country.

The ceremony was attended by Sukkur District Council Chairman Syed Kumail Hyder Shah, Deputy Commissioner Nadir Shahzad Khan, besides a large number of cattle owners and residents of the area.

Nationalists plan protests across Sindh on Sunday against 'enforced disappearances'

By Our Staff Correspondent

HYDERABAD: Leaders of several nationalist parties have endorsed the call for observing a Sindh-wide protest on Nov 9 against unabated incidents of alleged enforced disappearance in the province and the proposed 27th Amendment.

They held a meeting at the residence of Jeay Sindh Mahaz-Riaz (JSM-R) Chairman Riaz Ali Chandio on Tuesday,

It was attended by Dr Niaz Kalani of the Jeay Sindh Qaumi Mahaz-Bashir, Mohammad Ali Khushik of the Jeay Sindh Qaum Parast Party, Roshan Buriro of the Sindh United Party, Altaf Khaskheli of the Qaumi Awami Tehreek, analyst Jami Chandio and Pushpa Kumari of the Human Rights Commission of Pakistan (HRCP), among others.

Speaking at the meeting a Riaz Chandio said that the 26th Constitutional Amendment had already committed excesses against Sindh and now the proposed 27th Amendment sought to create new provinces and undermine the NFC Award by depriving Sindh of its resources.

The leaders believed that the proposed amendment was aimed at hitting the integrity of Sindh and, therefore, it would not be accepted.

Demanding release of all "victims of enforced disappearance" in Sindh, they claimed that some of those who were earlier let off, were picked up again and implicated in false cases registered under the Explosives Act. They said such steps and extrajudicial actions must stop now.

The gathering also adopted some resolutions, which said that no attempt to loot and plunder resources of Sindh would be accepted; powers that be should desist from plans to endanger the identity of Sindhis, Pashtuns and Balochs; all missing persons should be "released"; and violation of fundamental rights in Sindh must stop.

Later, Riaz Chandio said the proposed amendment would bring the proposal for the division of Sindh, but 'Islamabad' must remember that Sindh was the motherland of Sindhis and all conspiracies would be foiled. He termed the PPP a 'national criminal' as it was partner in crime in all conspiracies against Sindh.

He observed that the PPP's parliamentarians must remember that it would be difficult for them to return to Sindh. He said it was also the violation of international rights bodies' convention that people were picked up and their whereabouts remained unknown. He said activists picked up by police were not produced before courts.
